NOTES:

Offerings are still a concern. We may only be able to hire a new pastor at 25%.

February's loss is lower mainly because offerings were higher.

March's loss is lower as the pastor's hours were reduced to 30% (from 50%).

Overall the loss for the quarter is $3,362.

Some totals will have a $1 discrepancy due to rounding errors.

All Six Verses Yet

By Phillis Naylor

In unison we rise and stand
And wish that we were sitting.
We listen to the music start
And wish that it were quitting.
We pass our hymnal to a guest
Or fake a smoker's cough;
We drop our pencils, lose our gloves,
Or take our glasses off.
We move our lips to keep in style,
Emitting awkward bleats.
And when the last Amen is sung,
Sink gladly in our seats.
O Lord, who hears our every prayer
And saved us from our foes,
Deliver now thy little flock,
From hymns nobody knows.
