Conversation Club—The Convo Club has been called off a couple of times due to the wet weather. We always feel it is better to do this than risk people driving in the rain. I have asked Councillor Darren Grimwade to talk at one of our Thursday mornings in June. More information when I have a definite date. Monday and Friday group members are also invited to attend this morning. If you would like to be part of Conversation Club or know of someone, please let Maria know on 0438 897 279.

Explorers at UCD

'Explorers at UDC' is an opportunity for folk to meet to talk about matters important to them on their journey as followers of the way of Jesus. We meet after the worship service and after morning tea, on the 4th Sunday of the month, followed by lunch at Rendezvous Cafe for those who wish to stay on. Explorers is a safe place to ask questions and express views, without fear of 'being different'. Everyone is welcome to come along, listen, share and learn. Next meeting on 26 June, Margaret Green is going to lead our discussion:

Q: Pfft really! Isn't Christianity just a bunch of rules?

A: Well

We will be exploring this question/statement. I think each of us have been asked that question at some point on our journey ... perhaps we may have even asked the question ourselves.

It would be great to encourage one another on our faith walk during this time so please feel free to share your favourite scripture and what it means to you."

Instead of our May meeting, we joined the rest of the congregation for a fellowship breakfast and discussion on the topic, A daring Hope, an opportunity to expand our vision for our congregation as part of the whole Uniting Church of Queensland. We looked at our connections to our community, and 'dreamed big' about how we might serve it better. Joy
