Explorers at UCD—Sunday 27th

This month we welcome Rev Mano. Mano will present the topic “Can we disagree without having a disagreement” . I have known and worked with Mano for a few years now and he is an excellent speaker. He has a wonderful repour with the residents of Anam Cara. Come and join us on the fourth Sunday of the month, after morning tea. Our next Explorers after November will be in February 2023. Can you please let Joy know if you will be attending lunch at Rendezvous so we can phone with numbers by Friday 25th Nov.

Have you thought about giving on a monthly basis with Direct Debit. It is easy to set up and gives our Treasurer an idea what our finances will be for the month. Of course if you prefer to give during the Sunday Service we welcome this as well. We are a small congregation and we do lots around the community. We rely on the weekly offering to have our wonderful Pastor Dan.
