

Needed – a mainly music leader for 2016

Emily Sweetman, who has been our mainly music leader for the last two years, has indicated that she will not be able to take on this responsibility in 2016. She let the team and the parents know this last week. The rules for mainly music require the leader to be a member of the congregation and accountable to the church council of the church where it operates. It is a worldwide Christian organisation that maintains excellent resources and support for leaders. If we are to continue to provide mainly music as a ministry of our church, we will need to have someone from the congregation come forward. As there are now only five more sessions this year, it would be good for that person to come along each week and 'learn the ropes'.

Christmas Hampers

Thanks for the money gifts already given to our Combined Churches Christmas Hampers appeal. There is now a collection point for non-perishable items near the church entrance. Please do not confuse with our regular food hamper collection point. Enquiries and volunteers please talk to Paul and Robyn Inglis.

Congregational Consultation; 12-15 November

Rev David Fender and Rev John Danzie will be speaking to a wide range of people in our church and the community to discover their passions in life, their suggestions for the future and their hopes for our church and community.

The purpose of the consultation is to:

strengthen the life and witness of this Congregation,
 assess the future ministerial and lay leadership needs
 review the records of the Congregation.

Typical questions will be:

How do we strengthen.....?

What does this church do well?

How do you see God?

The report will be collated and presented on Sunday, 15th November. Also, on that day, a member of the Presbytery team will preach the sermon.

Please get on board and select a time to speak with either minister. See available time slots in the schedule (stuck to the island kitchen bench) or see Ann Turner.

A suggestion from Coral—

Could we have a POSTING BOX in the Church for the month of December for people to put their cards in? Coral will provide the box and empty and distribute the cards just before Christmas. Are all in favour of this? Can you please speak to Coral about this.
