

What's on in the Dayboro Uniting Church Children's Ministry

Friday, 3rd March

This week Self control ... Who is in Charge?

When we put our highest selves in charge, our inner joy and understanding grows. Self-control is more than learning to sit still and be quiet at the appropriate times. We must all learn to govern a wide range of thoughts and feelings every day. When we are able to lead with our highest aspirations, then we learn to identify ourselves in the highest way - as changeless spirit. The more we feel ourselves to be spiritual beings, the more all the fruits of spirit manifest in our lives.

This week in Sunday Space, the children will be encouraged to feel for the right direction within and to recognise that every impulse is not the right one simply because it is there. Every time we remember to put our highest self in charge, the more inner joy and freedom we experience.

For this very reason, you must make every effort to support your faith with goodness, and goodness with knowledge, and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with endurance, and endurance with godliness, and godliness with mutual affection, and mutual affection with love. For if these things are yours and are increasing among you, they keep you from being ineffective and unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.
