Uniting Church Dayboro

Bulletin

No matter who you are, how you identify, who you love, or where you are on life's journey: know that you are welcome & accepted here, and that you are loved by God & by us.

Pastor's Pondering

This month I'll be continuing my ponderings on taking our message beyond the four walls of our chapel and stepping into our communities. When we get involved in our communities, the people of those wider communities will likely become more receptive to our mission and our message. There are so many ways we can do this; clubs, associations, & community groups that we could be part of. It's not about how many, how big or how much. It's about making an impact that touches the community. It's better to do one or two things well than to try ten things half-heartedly or to do nothing at all. The bottom line is that when people in the community begin to see, sense and experience that we genuinely care about them, with no strings attached, their perspective about who we are and what we might want changes. That impacts their receptivity to our mission and the good news as shared by Jesus.

When we get involved in our communities we don't have to push an agenda. You're not trying to convert community members - you're simply looking to show them how God acts through the church and be an example of his grace. You will be surprised at the community reactions you'll see when you are honest, open, and caring. The same is true when we host events like our yard sales or even our 125 celebrations. Our events can create quite a bit of good will, and spur some folks into learning more about our church, and maybe even our beliefs. Of course, there most probably be many individuals that will never attend our church, that needs to be OK. But observation and experience tells me that God is pleased with this kind of ministry and ultimately it does draw people to church.

Shalom,
Danny

Note from Joy and John

Thank you

Thank you to everyone who sent us messages of love and best wishes for our move to Glass House Mountains. We are getting settled now (although still no internet), and are finding lots to love about this area and the new house. Thank you, too, for the love and support and encouragement you gave our grandchildren. They have some good memories of their time there. As Leo said: "I love going to church because even though I make mistakes, people tell me I did a good job" (I guess he was reflecting on some of his Y & Y-a-Heart efforts). I can still see him chatting like an old man over a cup of tea with Robert and Surjit, and teaching Jeanette to play chess on his iPad.

The church here at Glasshouse Country UC will lose their minister very shortly, and probably be without one for a while at least, so it will be a time of change for them.

There are similarities with UCD in size and demographic, except it is a bit more multicultural.

We are not far from Dayboro, really, so will be back from time-to-time. We will definitely try to be there for your 125th celebrations. When you are taking a drive out this way, the kettle is always on!
